Press program for the P4G Summit

Press/media must register for an accreditation to attend the P4G Copenhagen Summit.

Press/media must have been allocated a pool seat as well as an accreditation to access the press pools 1-4. Details about the press pools and size of pools can be found below in the press program.

Other events listed in the press program are open to all press/media that have registered for a general accreditation. Both the event, Next Generation P4G and Your Sustainable Life do not require an accreditation card.

Please read the press program to get key information about practicalities and other restrictions about press/media during the Summit. The press program will be continuously updated.
